
PART I: City of Atlanta Police Officers' Pension Plan

Introduction

One of the most important long-range goals for you and your family is to prepare for your financial security during your retirement years. The City of Atlanta Police Officers' Pension Plan was established to help you with this goal. This summary plan document is being provided to you merely to serve as a guide to understanding your benefits under the plan. In no case shall any portion of this summary plan document take priority over or change the meaning or effect of ordinance material already embodied in the Atlanta City Code of Ordinances.

The current pension plan was established by State legislators on April 1, 1978 and is commonly referred to as the "78 Plan." When the '78 Plan was first implemented as a new plan for the City of Atlanta, police officers were given the choice either to remain in the older 1964 Plan, also known as the "64 Plan," or to elect participation under the newer '78 Plan. For those police officers who elected coverage under the new '78 Plan, the employee contribution was increased and those desiring not to elect into the amendment remained under the '64 Plan with a smaller employee contribution. Because there are very few officers still covered under the '64 Plan, this booklet only describes the benefits in effect since April 1, 1978. If you are covered by the '64 Plan, please refer to your previous summary plan booklet or contact the pension administrator's offices at Administrative Services, Inc. at (770) 934-3953. Also, if you retired or terminated your employment prior to January 1, 2006, some of the benefits described in this booklet may not apply to you.

The '78 Plan has undergone several amendments by legislators over the last 27 years. In particular, there was an amendment made on January 1, 1986, commonly known as the "86 Amendment," that changed the plan's disability and death provisions. As required by law for all legislated changes amending the level of benefits offered, the police officers in active duty were given the option to accept or reject participation under the plan as amended by the '86 Amendment. All police officers hired after 1985 are automatically covered by the '86 Amendment.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The actual benefit payable to you from the plan will depend on the particular set of plan provisions that apply to you. In order to determine the benefit group (A or B) to which you belong, see "Choosing Your Benefit Group" on page 3.

The City of Atlanta Police Officers' Pension Plan is a defined benefit pension plan. Eligibility for benefits and the amount of those benefits are based upon a participant's years of service, compensation, and age at retirement. Eligible plan participants are sworn police officers employed by the City of Atlanta. Eligible plan beneficiaries include legal spouses, registered domestic partners, or unmarried minor children (or children under the age of 23 if a full-time student). Funding of the plan comes from the combined contributions made by both the City of Atlanta and the plan participants. It is important to note that plan participants do not have individual accounts in the pension plan. Upon the death of a participant, survivor benefits may be payable to eligible beneficiaries.

This booklet is written in everyday language to summarize the benefits, rights, and obligations you have under your pension plan. While every effort has been made to accurately describe the pension plan, it is important to remember that this booklet is only a summary. In the event this booklet conflicts with City ordinances and State laws governing the plan, the provisions of the City ordinances and State laws will be followed.

No Reliance on Oral Representation: No oral representation, explanation, confirmation, and/or reports may be relied upon by any person whatsoever. Eligibility, coverage, and benefits are determined solely on the basis of the relevant City ordinances, State laws, and applicable rules, regulations, and procedures of the Board of Trustees. All determinations of eligibility and benefits are based on the precise facts of any particular circumstances, including the data on hand with the Trustees such as years of service, compensation, and contribution history. No oral representation, confirmation, or description or explanation of coverage and/or benefits given by any person whatsoever is binding upon the Trustees. General descriptions of coverage and/or benefits may be provided strictly as a courtesy accommodation to participants or beneficiaries, but they are not final or determinative on a participant's eligibility, coverage, or anticipated benefit amount provided for by the fund. Final determinations of eligibility and benefits are made only by the Trustees upon a full adjudication of written claims, full proof of claims, and evaluation of all relevant data. Final determinations will be provided to each participant in writing.
